Business Meeting July 18, 2013
Ft Worth, TX

Call to order by President Eileen King.
Invocation was given by Lance Beshires.

Welcome and introductions were offered and Past Presidents, State Presidents, 1st time attendees, State Directors, Sponsors and Mike Belarmino were recognized.

Following lunch, the Roll call of States was read by Secretary Debbi McGinnis.

Minutes of the March 2013 meeting in Washington DC were read and approved.

President King asked Nancy Weeks to give a report on the Martinelli Award. There were no nominees.

Charlotte Sandvik offered bylaw changes. Motion was made by Nancy Weeks and seconded by Barbara Ford-Coates to approve. Motion passed. Barbara Ford-Coates spoke on the status of sponsorships. President King spoke of the State visits she made to ID, OR, MO, TX, AZ, NY and VA.

President Elect Mike Diskin gave an update on the Conference committee.

1st Vice President Sandy Zoubek spoke of the newsletter and recognized Pat Lensmeyer on her excellent efforts with the Education Committee. She then introduced Jim McFadden, Legislative Chair and Mike Belarmino, NACo liaison who relayed that there was very little movement on current bills. The municipal bond issue is still a critical issue as well as the Municipal Advisor Oversight Improvement Act.

2nd Vice President Joey Davis asked Jim Platt to present the Audit Committee Report. Motion to approve carried. The budget was also approved.

Secretary Debbi McGinnis reported 23 states and 75 members were in attendance as well as several guests. There was no correspondence to be read.

Treasurer Cheri Remington reported a current balance of $67,912.30 and the Treasurers Report was approved.

Past President Steve Holt reported on next years NACo conference in New Orleans, LA in 2014. He also offered the Nomination report as follows:
